New Series: Discipleship: How to become people who Love, Trust and Follow Jesus

When I was praying about this new series, I felt drawn to this idea that if we call ourselves Christians, then we are aiming to be followers of Christ. Not just in what we do, but in remodelling ourselves toward His character and His personality. I really felt that this focus wasn't simply going to be a list of rules or methodology – however helpful they are. But I couldn't quite see how it was going to work.

Then God really spoke to me at Fresh Streams – as he often does. I really sensed his love for me, his 'speaking tenderly' to me. It refreshed my relationship with Him. Yes, even at an online conference. When God really speaks to you it's quite arresting and exciting.

As the conference developed I got a sense that imitating Jesus, and becoming like Jesus should flow from our relationship with Jesus. Not by trying to follow a formula, but by being like him and because of a desire in our hearts.

Then Andy Glover spoke, saying that we want to be those who 'Love, Trust and Follow Jesus'.

I found this phrase strangely interesting. It gradually dawned on me that this was it. In order to follow Jesus, we have to trust Jesus. You are not going to truly follow someone that you don't trust. And in order to trust Jesus, we have to love Jesus. You're not going to truly trust someone that you don't love. In the meeting I wrote on the chat: "You have to Love before you can really trust. You have to trust before you can really follow. Do I really love? Do I really trust? Do I really follow? Do I need to go back to spend time with Jesus and love more? Do I need to wait on God and trust more? Do I need to listen and hear and follow more."

I believe that this is for the whole church at this time. After each sermon/service, please take a few minutes to reflect and pray through and write an answer to:

Please send me your answers and thoughts too. I believe that God speaks to and through all of us together. I hope you'll join me as we consider 'Who Jesus Would Be' and as we continue our walk of discipleship together.

◇ Giving

We quite understand that financial difficulties may impact your ability to give to the work of the church at this time. Please do not place yourself under additional financial strain. However, if you normally give to the weekly cash offering and would like to explore other ways of giving to the work at Penrallt, please speak to Averil, our Treasurer, who will be able to advise (treasurer@penrallt.org).

◇ Hardship Fund

The church has a small fund overseen by the minister to help people in need. If you find yourself in financial difficulty or know someone else that is struggling, please speak with Sarah Jackson (sarah.jackson.home@gmail.com) or John Thompson (minister@penrallt.org) in confidence. And if you are in a position to add to the hardship fund, please speak to Averil Francis (treasurer@penrallt.org).

◇ Homegroups / Contact, Care & Prayer

We encourage you to join one of our homegroups if you are not already in one, as they are invaluable in helping us to deepen our relationship with the Lord and with one another. While we are unable to meet physically, the groups are meeting on Zoom and other online platforms on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday evenings and on Tuesday and Friday mornings (most groups meet weekly). Contact the church office to find out more or be put in touch with a group.

There are contact, care and prayer groups to enable people to stay connected and receive prayer support even if they are not in a homegroup; unlike the homegroups these groups do not meet together but each one has a designated person to contact the other group members regularly. Once again, please contact the church office if you are not part of a contact, care & prayer group or a homegroup and would like to be.

This will be taking place via weekly Zoom meetings on Fridays at 3:30pm, starting on 5th February, with 'Muddy Church' prayer celebrations once a month. There will be support and advice from organic gardener Sue Jennings. As the events are online, you don't need to live near Holyhead to take part. Please feel free to pass the information on to friends or family who may be interested. For a Zoom link or more information, please email jenningsue@gmail.com

Focus on...

Towards the end of January Susan and Tony Burt, on behalf of Penrallt, attended a prayer meeting on Zoom, hosted by Bangor University's Christian Union. Rory, one of the student leaders, opened the meeting with a passage taken from Acts 16 (Paul's conversion of Lydia in Philippi). He then cleverly transferred the Bible passage from the first to the twenty first century – Philippi in Macedonia became Bangor in Gwynedd, and Lydia in Acts was transformed into Lydia a second year student at Bangor University. The message is as relevant now as it was then, in the midst of these difficult and uncertain times.

There were quite a few representatives from churches in the Bangor area (including AOG, Mosaic and Ebenezer), dividing into small groups to pray for the forthcoming CU mission, which will take place through six online presentations scheduled during the first fortnight in February. Tony writes: "It was an honour to take part, and to meet some delightful young Christians, on fire for God."

Bangor University Christian Union exists to give every student the opportunity to hear and respond to the great news of Jesus Christ. Coming into this semester, in a new lockdown, the CU needs your support and prayer with the upcoming missions weeks. Spreading across two weeks, from 2nd to 12th February, and focusing on the theme of 'Something More?', there will be a variety of live-streamed podcast discussions and Zoom talks, each followed by interactive question and discussion time.

The CU say: "This is going to be a very different missions week to what the CU is used to so please pray:

- For the online events, taking place at 7:30pm on 2nd, 4th, 5th, 9th, 11th and 12th February
- For the speakers – that God would use their words clearly and effectively
- For CU members – to get involved and to be bold in inviting their friends
- For online publicity – we cannot go out to meet students/distribute flyers and so we are relying on online advertising
- For our energy – that despite being online, we can show the joy of the Gospel
- Most of all, that people will come along and will be saved

If you want to find out more information or want to be added to our monthly prayer letter list, please email: cu@undebbangor.com"

(Information about the mission programme is also available on the Penrallt Students' Facebook group)
