

Penrallt Baptist Church

Newsletter for June 2013

I read the news in April, and so I assumed it must be a belated April Fools' Joke. The story was that Facebook is going to start charging UK users up to £11 to send messages to celebrities and other people who do not figure on their list of friends. I checked it out and discovered that it isn't a joke. They really are offering you the chance to send messages into the inbox of celebrities and other less well known people. But at a price. Although you can currently send messages for free to anyone on Facebook, they go into a box entitled 'other'. And as no one ever checks that folder this new method allows you to fire your message directly under the nose of the person you want to contact.

So how much does this privilege cost you? According to the press (and I deny all responsibility for the accuracy of this. I'm just reprinting what was in the papers) fees range from as much as £10.68 to contact a celebrity such as Olympic swimmer Tom Daley down to a standard 71p to contact less well-known figures, such as BBC's Robert Peston or Prince Harry's girlfriend Cressida Bonas.

Aren't you so glad that God isn't on Facebook? Can you just imagine the frenzy in the office of Mark Zuckerberg when the news breaks?

"Hey guys. Have you heard? God's on Facebook!!"

Cheers all round

"We're gonna be rich, we're gonna be loaded, we're gonna be ridiculously wealthy!"

"But we are already."

"Oh yeah."

A pause while they all mentally add another 3 zeroes to their bank statements.

"At £10.68 per person per message, that's like zillions and zillions, 'cos everyone's gonna want to contact him."

"Wha da ya mean £10.68? This is God! Must be worth at least fifty bucks a message!"

"Nah! A hundred!"

"What about a hundred twenty-five, but two for a hundred fifty?"

A pause, punctuated only by the tapping on iPads as a room full of drooling executives calculates the mark-up.

Minister: Revd Peter J. Cousins, 135 Penchwintan Road, Bangor LL57 2YG (01248 353878)

Secretary: Neil Rymer, 20 Brynteg, Llandegfan, Menai Bridge LL59 5TY (01248 713003)

Treasurer: Stephen Burrows, 39 Cil y Graig, Llanfairpwll, LL61 5NZ (01248 714048)

Church Office: 01248 353355; Email: office@penrallt.org; Website: <http://www.penrallt.org>

"Wait a minute. The service is free to your friends."

"Yeah, so what?"

"Well won't everyone be, like, friends of God?"

Horrified silence as the orders for private jets are mentally cancelled.

"Nah! The whole of humanity can't be God's friends. I mean, would the world be in such a mess if they were?"

"But what if people start taking out lawsuits for discrimination? Like, asking why that other group are God's friends and they're not?"

"Could get messy."

"Yeah, but we can afford the lawyers. And we can always blame God."

"We're gonna have to make this exclusive. I mean, we don't want what God on MySpace, or Google+ do we? Even if we have to cut the Almighty into the profits somehow, we've gotta make him sign an exclusive with us."

Then the reverie suddenly ends. Zuckerberg's iPhone pings and a message tells him that it was all a hoax. God was never on Facebook, and humanity will have to go back to the old-fashioned means of communication called prayer. And it's free. Apparently it's not so hard to be God's friend either. Seems the Son of God came to fix that for us too.

And as the gloom settles around Zuckerberg's office, out in the corridor the office cleaner, poor and unnoticed, bows her head for a second praying to God for a grandchild who is ill. Free and unfettered her words fly heavenward, and God answers in an instant.

"Do not fear, my child. Peace be with you."

God bless,

Peter (On Facebook and you can be my friend. Just ask.)

Note: please remember that evening service in June, July and August will begin at 7pm. We want your Sundays to be a true Sabbath when you not only enjoy our excellent worship services but also take time out in the garden or on the beach to relax and let God minister to you through his creation. Don't hesitate to come to church still in your walking boots, tho' changing out of your swimwear might be an idea. 😊

NEWS OF PEOPLE

Tony Mason had just left hospital at the time of writing. We continue to pray for him and Joan. Our condolences to Glenys Poirot and family on the death of her mother.

We are sad to say goodbye to Hannah Gordon-Roberts who will be leaving at the end of this month to join Tim in Scotland. Hannah has been so heavily involved in our children's work, not least in the leadership of the crèche, that we will struggle to fill the huge gap she will leave. Thank you, Hannah, for all you have done. And of course, Natalie, Charis and Becky will be leaving also. We will miss you, but pray God's richest blessing on you all. (Please note that the crèche on Sunday mornings is now under the leadership of Kate Wheatcroft.)

Margaret Griffiths sent us this email:

"Please could you pass my thanks onto everyone at Penrallt for their support and prayers over the last few years. I will write a formal response to the church in due course."

Children's Birthdays in June:

20th: Bradley Jones; 28th: Ben Mitchell

➤ Penrallt on Facebook

120 people are signed up to Penrallt's Facebook site. Join us.

➤ Homeless in Bangor

Please do not give money directly to the homeless in Upper Bangor. We have found in the past that it has encouraged aggressive begging on the church premises by people who have a history of violence. You will find brown envelopes in the porch to put your gift in. This will buy vouchers which are distributed to the homeless by the Cathedral via St Mary's Shelter.

➤ The Prayer Room...

...is open before and after the service for quiet prayer. Penrallt is a place of prayer, so make use of this sacred space.

➤ Pray for Penrallt Every Day

Sign up to receive our prayer diary by e-mail every Monday morning by sending your request to: office@penrallt.org.

If you have some subject for prayer, either send it in by e-mail, or fill in one of the pink cards, which are available in the porch, and place it in the visitors' cards box or give it to Peter or Magnus.

➤ Pastoral Help

If you have pastoral concerns please contact Peter or one of the other members of the Pastoral Care team.
